

FREE TO FAIL

By Michele Wagner & Dwight Lilies

Reference: 2 Timothy 4:7, Psalm 34:4

Intro/Interlude

Verse 1

On the crevasse of my calling I hesitate and look behind
So much expected of me watchful eyes look into mind
I don't want to let them down but I'm so afraid to try
But like an eagle stirs her nest you won't let me rest

Chorus

Until I leap into the sky and then I
Will throw my fears aside
And trust you to protect me as I sail
Free to fall
Free to fail

Verse 2

A picture now imperfect
A composition incomplete
I will sometimes disappoint them and appear before them weak
I don't mean to let them down but I will not apologize
I was called to faithfulness and I will not rest

Bridge

This time I'm free to try
Free to let Your will succeed