Intro/Interlude

Verse 1

The child in you is hurting all alone
No one to talk to no one seems to know
The weight you are caring is too much for you to bear
You pretend that nobody cares
Well God is well acquainted with your ways
All Your thoughts and how you fill your days
So why are you avoiding the one who knows you best
Jesus longs to give you rest

Chorus 1

He knows all the struggles you are going through
He knows the pain your feeling
He hears the silent cries you hold within your heart
And He wants so much to show you
That He knows

Verse 2

Remember that our God became a man
To feel the way we feel and now He understands
When life brings you heartache let Him comfort you
Believing that He's been there too

Chorus 2

He knows all the struggles you are going through
He knows the pain your feeling
He hears the silent cries you hold within your heart
Let Him show you that He knows

Ending

And He wants so much to show ooh yes He does
Oh won't you let Him hold you and love you through it all
Oh won't you let Him show you
