

YOU'RE BEAUTIFUL

By Michele Wagner & Timothy K Norris
Reference: 2 Corinthians 3:18

Verse 1

You line up your failures and count them again
Is there one more second chance
You've made good first impressions but their big expectations
Brought fear along the way

So you hide your dreams you cover your scars
You're afraid someone might know you
But spiritual freedom comes from believing
You're loved as you are

Chorus

You're beautiful like a diamond in the sun
You're so beautiful and you're becoming brighter
You're beautiful and the world needs so much to see
All the treasure in your soul
You're beautiful

Verse 2

We all are imperfect most insecure
We're afraid of who we are
It's hard to imagine this world that we live in It's could need us at all
But we must be worth something for Jesus to bear
The scars of perfect love
And begin the refining until we are shining
A jewel in His care

Tag/Ending

You're beautiful!!!
